

Mental Health Warmline Associates (Remote, Part-Time) Daytime Shift

Pro Bono Counseling is seeking two remote part-time Mental Health WARMLine Associates (bilingual preferred) to provide telephonic clinical support services to Marylanders from Monday-Friday, 10AM-2PM or 1PM-5PM, for a total of 20 hours each per week.

About the Pro Bono Counseling Mental Health WARMLine

The Mental Health WARMLine was created to support Marylanders who are experiencing mental health concerns related to stress, anxiety, sadness, and life transitions. The WARMLine is intended to offer brief support and referral services to callers. This position reports to the WARMLine Director.

Qualifications

- Mental health counseling experience (graduate degree required; candidates with an LBSW, LMSW, LGPC, LMFT license or other advanced mental health licenses preferred; graduate students enrolled in counseling programs will be considered)
- Be comfortable with using technology to work remotely (including phone skills, video conferencing, and Microsoft Suite)
- Must have access to a dedicated, quiet, and professional work setting appropriate for both video and audio consultations
- Bilingual candidates preferred

Job Responsibilities

- Answer WARMLine calls and provide brief interventions such as reflective listening, psychoeducation, and stress management skills development during weekend and evening hours;
- Conduct assessments with WARMLine callers, and provide resources as well as direct referrals to selected agencies;
- Provide psychoeducation about mental health counseling and the PBC referral process, and conduct telephone interviews (using active listening skills and asking appropriate follow up questions) to assess client eligibility for PBC services;
- Conduct clinical services in a sensitive, responsive, and culturally and linguistically appropriate manner (using telephonic interpretation to effectively communicate with callers who are Limited English Proficient);
- Document clinical interactions in case management database with a high level of accuracy;
- Assist the clinical team in completing other programmatic tasks (for example, sending clinical presentations to clinicians via email);
- Other duties as assigned;

Compensation

The hourly rate range for these positions is $30-$32 an hour. Additional benefits include contributions to medical insurance coverage and dental/vision insurance, FSA, DCA, basic life insurance/AD&D, EAP, a simple IRA with 3% match, as well as a generous leave package.

How to Apply
